STREAKS ARE TRIUMPHANT FOR HOMECOMING 1984.

October 19, 1984, started as a dreary day but turned out to be a very beautiful fall evening for Homecoming, with the Streaks coming out on top of the Bulldogs. Serving as queen was Susan Horst, and escorting her were Jim Williams and Rick Rufenacht. Serving as her court were Dawn Faler and her escort Chad Short, Robin Hance and her escort Brian Horst, Diane Fry and her escort Dave Tijerina, Jodi Miller and her escort Joe Rodriguez. This year Homecoming was different from the past. We held no spirit contest; instead, the spirit trophy was dedicated to the memory of Deanne Fortier following her tragic death. The classes still decorated various windows uptown and filled cheer boxes. Another part of the Homecoming celebration was the different dress up days. Tuesday was ties, buttons, hats, and shades. Wednesday was nerd day, clash, backwards, and inside out. Thursday was mock Swanton day with purple and white. Friday was the traditional blue and gold day.

The band explodes in a multitude of fireworks.

ALL AMERICAN

"Melt us!" called the immigrants coming from Europe as they arrived at Kennedy Airport. Among this group was the distinguished Professor Stanislaus Fodorski on his way to a new world of opportunity as the Professor of Engineering at Southern Baptist Institute of Technology. He was surprised when he found the Dean of SBIT was a woman, Elizabeth Hawkes-Bullock, and amazed that American students place football ahead of academics. Professor Fodorski finally meets two serious students, Edwin Bricker and Susan Piedmont. As Professor Fodorski is "melted" into American life, he learns that there is more to freedom than opportunity and he doesn't have to lose his identity when he comes to a new country.

JR. SR. PROM

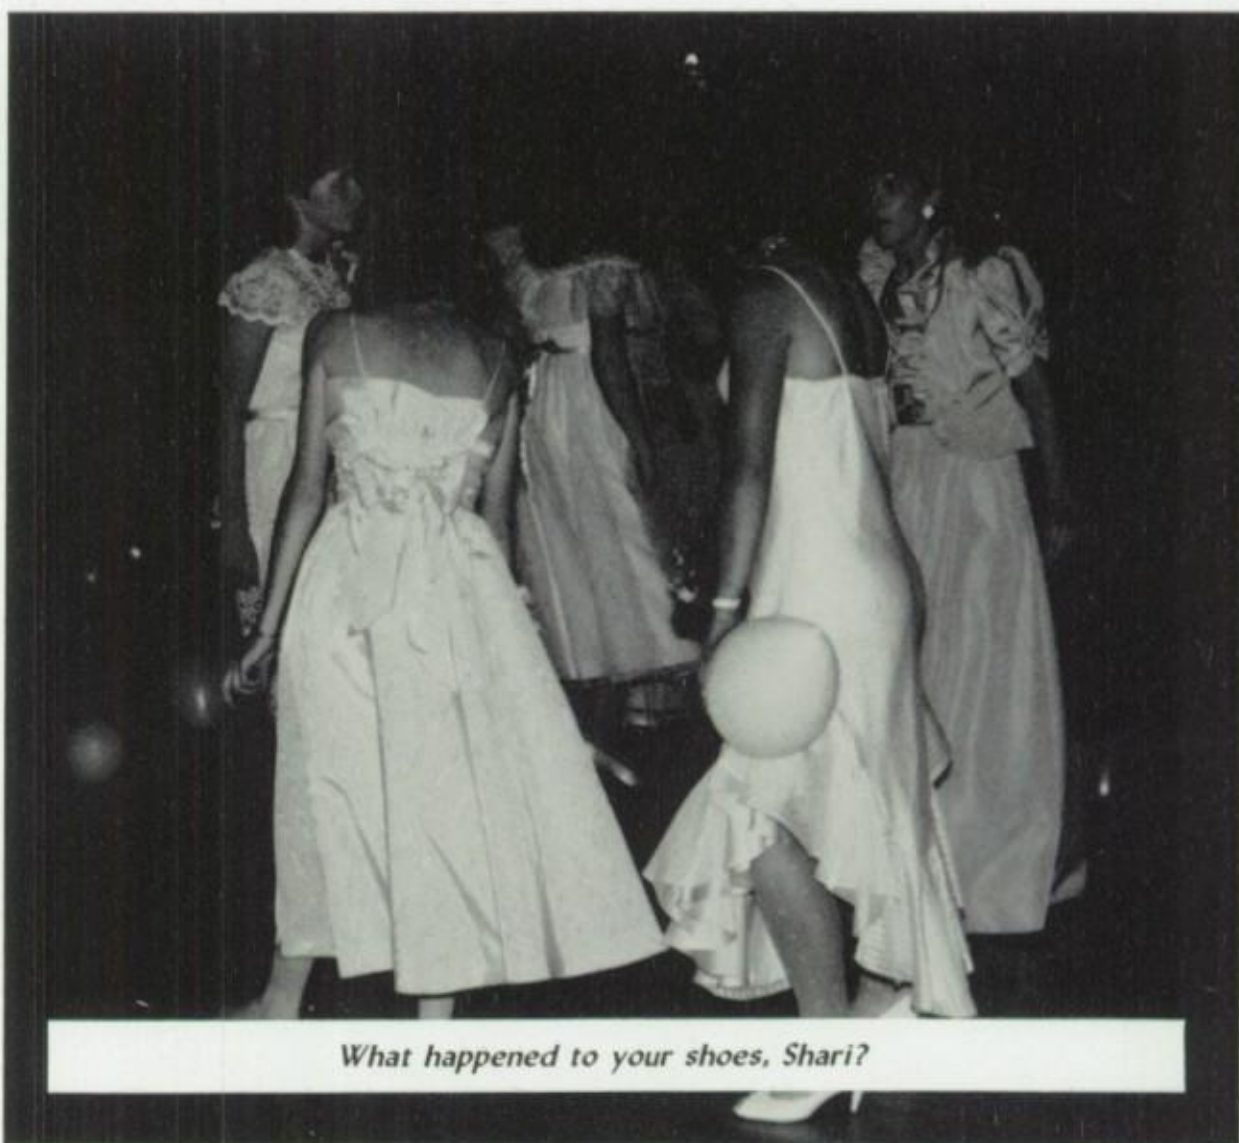

Look at those legs!

A Night In Heaven is just what April 26, 1985 turned out to be. The Jr. class dedicated that night in the memory of Deanne Fortier who is spending all her nights in heaven. Ron Finn from 92.5 FM in Toledo was the disc jockey for the dance. After the dance there was a movie and your choice of either roller skating or bowling.

The senior studs.

What happened to your shoes, Shari?

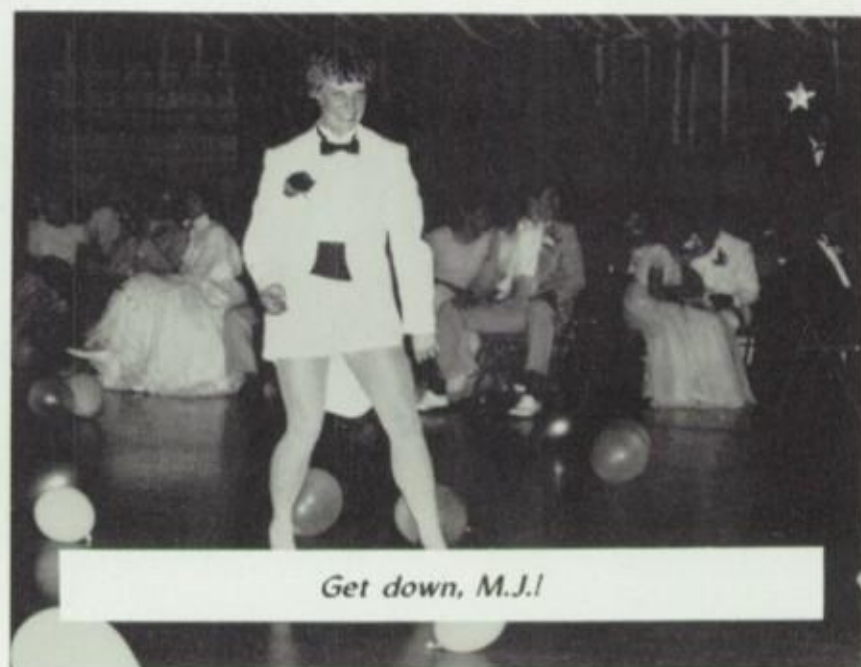

A NIGHT IN HEAVEN

What a cute couple!

Taking a rest between dances.

Get down, M.J.!

Larry's Farewell.

Juniors greet the audience.

"I can tell you're a friendly audience. You're all waving at me."

BLUESTREAK MEETS GOALS.

Tim tries to act cool.

Aren't you supposed to be working?

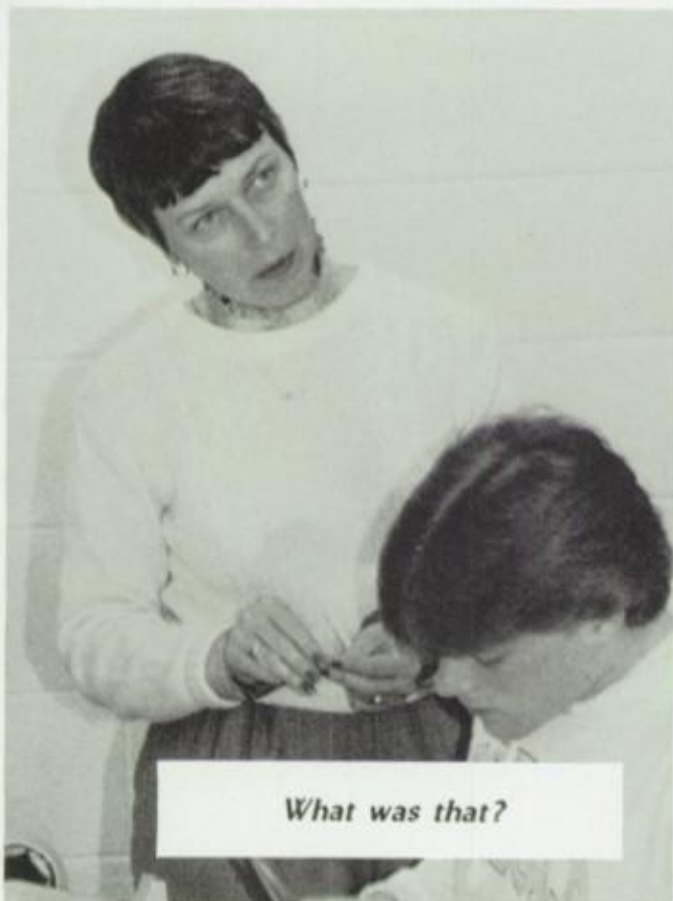

Yearbook isn't all fun, is it?

The Bluestreak staff worked hard this year to get ads sold, sell yearbooks, and get our assigned pages finished in time. We had a lot of responsibility, but we had a lot of fun doing it. Laura Nafziger and Wendy Rupp were co-editors for this year.

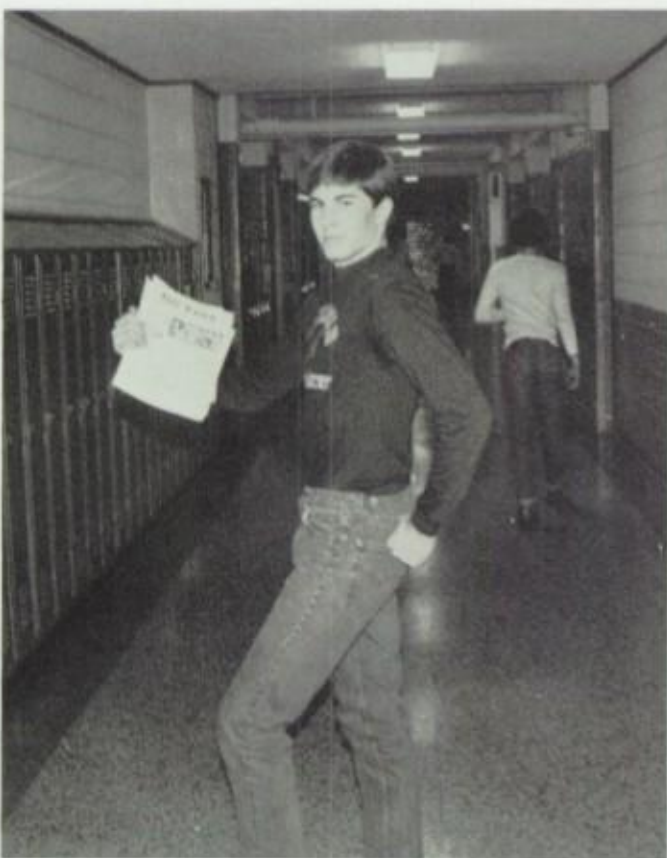

BLUE 'N GOLD WORKS HARD

What was that?

What are you looking at?

Mike peddles his wares.

First row: C. Goertz, K. Drake, C. Short, M. Marti, M. Smith, and B. Rex. Second row: L. Apper, B. Ziegler, and B. Short. Third row: B. Blose, M. Wendt, B. Miller, L. Bernath, and E. Miller. Fourth row: A. Miller, Mrs. Short, and K. Furko.

This year the Blue 'N Gold staff had a new experience. Half-way through the year the staff got a new computer to prepare the regular paper on. They used it to prepare the paper for publication every two weeks. This year's editor was Maria Smith.

STUDENT COUNCIL PLANS A LOT!

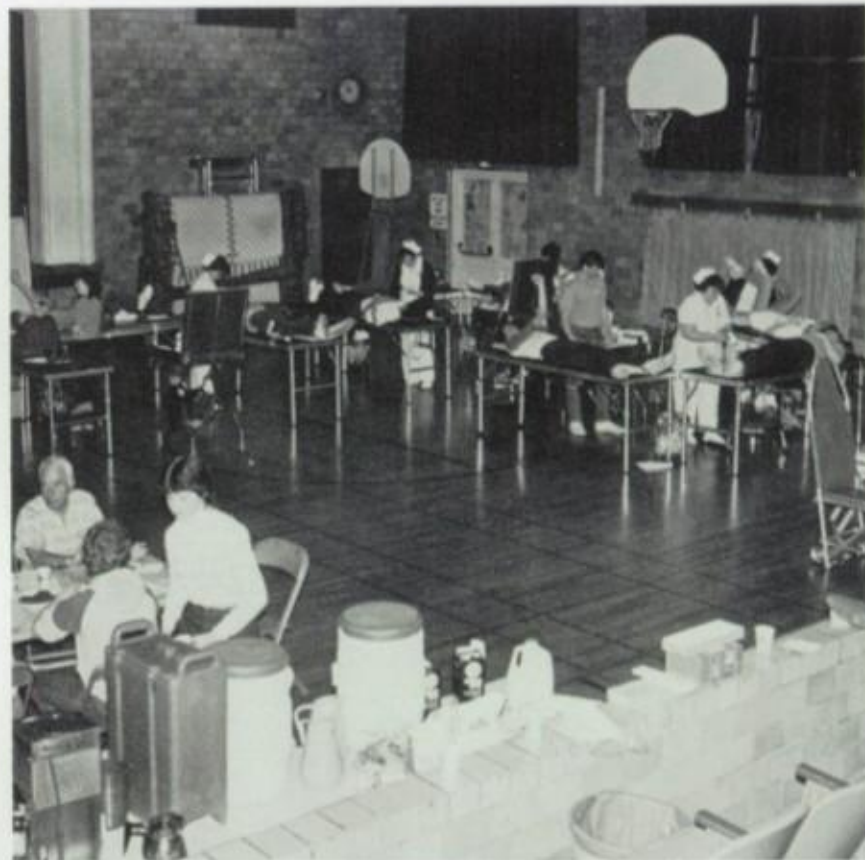

The Student Council was always planning something this past year. They were responsible for getting the Homecoming Dance together again. The Student Council also planned for the Heart Fund drive at the high school, with a box lunch social and raffles. They also kept the new tradition, started last year, of having the bloodmobile come here for any student or staff eligible to give blood.

Row One: M. Marti, M. Smith, A. Miller, and R. Miller. Row Two: B. Roth, G. Todd, M. Lehman, and M. Laub. Row Three: C. Vonier, M. Coressel, J. Geiger, and Mrs. Kolb. Row Four: M. Childs, K. Beck, and Mr. McDonel.

What's in this pizza?!

The 1985 Bloodmobile.

Decisions, decisions.

VARSITY A KEEPS BUSY.

Well, good point.

I'm so lonely all by myself.

This is so boring.

Tired Mark?

Front Row: J. Blose, M. Parnell, G. Roth, E. Rupp, B. Blose, J. Schnitkey, K. Strickler, M. Smith, and K. Furko. Middle Row: M. Flores, B. Roth, A. Schweinhagen, M. Stevens, M. Childs, S. The Varsity A kept busy all year raising money for the athletics here at Archbold. They did a lot to contribute to sports of all kinds. They sold Archbold Bluestreak clocks to raise money, along with a lot of other things. There were many people in Varsity A this year. It really helped when it came time to do the things that they planned to do.

F.H.A. TOWARD NEW HORIZONS

FHA was busy this year with reaching goals. One of the goals was a financial project to make money for the children's hospital. They also had a banquet, participated in a Mini Olympics and competed in regional rally. This year marks the 40th anniversary for FHA, which has 25 members from freshmen through seniors in the local chapter.

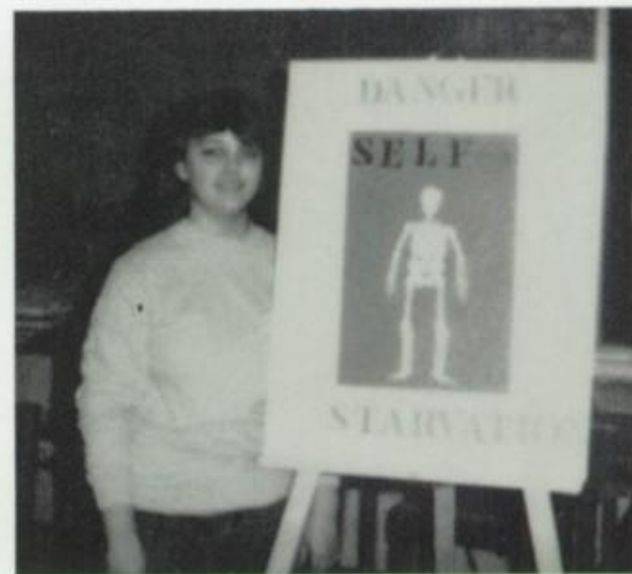

Row 1: L. Gansmiller, A. Wheeler, Row 2: T. Summa, M. Short, J. Kinsey, P. Schweinhagen, V. Davis. Row 3: S. Holsinger, M. Short, L. Apger, T. Burdine, Mrs. Stevens. Row 4: D. Williams, M. Benecke, K. Riegsecker, K. Andersen, C. Stubblefield. Row 5: C. Rathburn, A. Cohrs, B. Filson, T. Keesbery. Missing: S. Kleck, K. Merillat, P. Nofziger.

Smile, you're on Candid Camerall

Kruse, D. Busselman, D. Beck. Row 5: J. Fether, J. Fielitz, D. Rufenacht, D. Ball, E. Short. Missing: K. Miller.

This year FFA was busy with many activities. These activities ranged from a parliamentary procedure contest, public speaking, FFA/FHA hunt, district judging and projects at the Fulton County Fair. This year Michelle Wendt was chosen to represent the Archbold FFA. She reigned over the Fulton County Fair on Junior Fair Day.

... and this is how you put out a fire?

Nice car, Greg.

Whom did you pay for the trophy?

Every Wednesday students get together to show their school spirit. They do this by drawing and coloring locker sings for the different sporting events. They occasionally bake cookies, sponsor dances, work concessions at the home games, and have different money-making projects.

PEP BAND And JAZZ BAND

Every home basketball game some Archbold band students entertain the fans with upbeat tunes. Some of the popular tunes this year are "Land of A Thousand Dances," "Billy Jean" and "Bugler's Dream."

The Jazz band, an ensemble of four part trumpet, trombone, saxophone, piano, bass and electric guitar, and a drum set, plays both modern and jazz music. They participate in the spring concert, along with the symphonic and 5th grade band.

BLUESTREAK MARCHING BAND

Every year the marching band meets a week before school starts for camp. Many days of rigorous marching, hard playing, and backbreaking hours go into perfecting the band's performance on the field.

The band's popularity has helped them receive many invitations to different events. Invitations the band received this year were to perform the half-time show at the University of Toledo for the BG/UT game and to participate in the Edgerton Marching Invitational.

SYMPHONIC BAND

I thought you were supposed to look at the music.

Jerry, our dedicated band student of the year.

After marching season, the symphonic band settles down to work on technique, sound, and performance improvement. They play contemporary music and compete in district and state competition.

The A Cappella and Mixed Choirs have been very busy this year with a fall concert, a Christmas concert at St. John's UCC, and a winter concert at Zion Mennonite Church. The A Cappella Choir sang at the dedication of the baby grand piano which was given to them by Sauder Woodworking. Robin Hance, Renee Roth, Lynne Long, and Valetta Taylor Parlette played for this recital.

The Archbold Choirs performed in the musical "All American" and also for the graduation ceremonies.

WHO IS THE PRIDE OF N.W. OHIO?

Michelle Parnell, Scott Nafziger, Anita Stuckey, Greg Todd, Lynn Wanemacher, Adam Falor, Kathy Drake, Tony Gericke, Mary Jo Short, Steve Leinbach, Julie Hodges, Matt Nafziger, Audra Miller, Brian Horst, Shannon Miller, Denny Basselman, Jenny Smith, Grant Burkholder, Beth Short, Mark Coressel, Tate Miller, Mark Frey, Mark Miller, Renee Roth, Robin Hance.

This spirited singing group of 26 high school students is definitely the pride of Northwest Ohio. Although the Company lost 9 members last year, the additions brought new and brilliant talent to the group. This year, they purchased a 16 channel mixing board and a synthesizer. These allow the group to sound even better.

Every Monday evening the Company gets together and practices songs such as "Maniac" from the movie Flashdance, Lionel Richie's "All Night Long", and "Don't Cry" from the popular group Asia.

The Company performs at private shows for area businesses, clubs, and organizations. They also sing at the annual Sermon in Music. They traveled to Columbus for the VICA state convention for which Mary Jo Short was the queen. The Company also performed at Portside as they did the previous year.

With the leadership of Mr. McDonel, the Company is a very effective singing group.

LADY STREAKS N.W.O.A.L.

The Lady Streaks had another fine season. Head coach Char Sharp and the team went 8-0 in N.W.O.A.L. action to capture the title of N.W.O.A.L. champs with ease. When asked how she thought the season went, Coach Sharp replied, "I feel that we had again another outstanding season." She went on to say that, in her opinion, the Bellevue match was the best match they played all year. In that match the Streaks came back from a 12-15 loss to defeat Bellevue 15-13, 16-14. At the end of the regular season, the Archbold spikers were 20-1, with the only loss to Holland Springfield. The Streaks were stopped in the regional semi-finals by Fort Jennings, ending their fine season 25-2. The team chose Dawn Faler and Susan Horst as co-captains.

The Archbold Girls' J.V. Volleyball team had quite an impressive year. The girls, having a record of 18 wins and 1 loss to Napoleon, were quite young. The team was made up of 2 sophomores and 12 freshmen. Coach Beck said that the girls had a great year. "There was a lot of improvement as the year went along."

Having an 18-3 season, the wrestlers made an outstanding effort to be league champs. They lost to state ranked Liberty Center and always tough Swanton. There were 6 wrestlers who qualified for Regionals. The highlight of the season was Dan Galvan's fourth place finish at state competition. Next year's squad should be as good as or even better than this year's squad, because only one Senior, Grant Burkholder, will be graduating.

According to Coach Frank, "This year's group worked hard and was fun to coach. They will be successful in the years to come." The JV's also went undefeated in league play to capture the NWOAL JV title.

KRAUSS AND TEAM HAVE

The Varsity Boys' Basketball team with Coach Doug Krauss in his first year as Head Coach turned out a fine season this past year. They had a very balanced attack with their starters and a good bench team to add to it. The Bluestreaks closed out an excellent year with a loss at the hands of the North Central Eagles in District semi-finals. It was the second time N.C. had beaten the varsity club, and it was a sad loss to end a great season. The team voted Brian Ziegler as captain.

Jody scores for the Streaks.

The girls softball team had yet another big season. To win 3 championships out of 6 is a great accomplishment. This shows the determination of the lady Streaks. Only losing three regular season games, the Streaks then went on to Sectionals, Regionals, and then to State competition. They made their way to the finals, but lost a tough game. The girls deserve to be the best, because they are the best.

Please let me land safely!

The boys team had a fine season. Ending up with a 4-2 record in dual meets, the guys were not satisfied with their record. They then went on to win the Archbold Invitational, the NWOAL league meet, and the Sectionals Tournament. The team had a lot of guys going to State, but unfortunately none of them wound up with a first place. They have a lot to be proud of because they tried to bring home the gold.

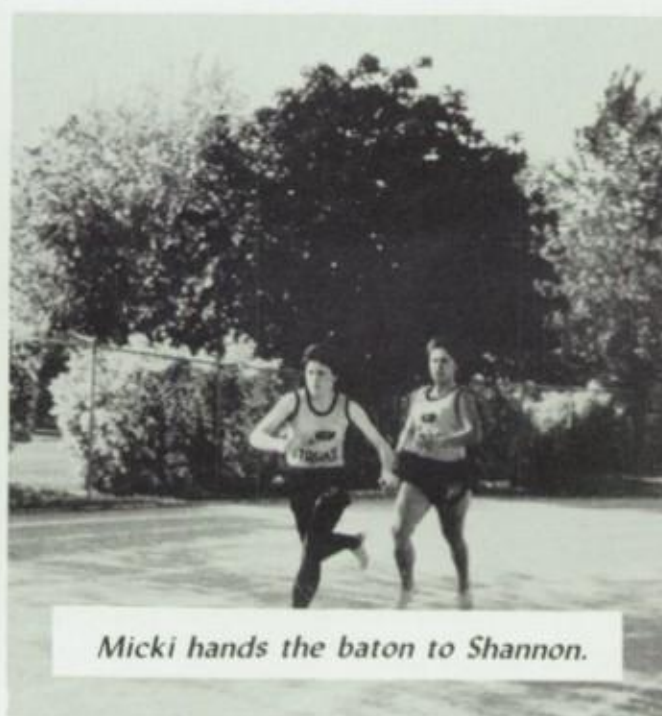

GIRLS WIN SECTIONAL TOURNEY

Front Row: K. Furko, S. Horst, D. Faler, M. Smith, and S. Coressel. Second Row: H. Nafziger, S. Lauber, M. Laub, E. Rupp, R. Hance, D. Fry, S. Klinger, J. Kinsey, and K. Merillat. Third Row: C. Tijerina, K. Sullivan, D. Dilyard, L. Wyse, K. Nafziger, D. Borton, A. Sloan, D. Bott.

Julie is off to the races!

Micki hands the baton to Shannon.

The girls' track team got off to a bad start. Losing their first four dual meets, the girls decided that they were not going to give up. They finished with a first in the Ayersville and the Archbold Invitationals. Still not satisfied, they went on to get a second in Sectionals. Finally, they sent some of the team to State, but like the guys, they were not able to bring home the gold.

A black and white photograph of a forest. A large, tall tree with a thick trunk is the central focus. It is surrounded by other trees of varying heights and densities. The ground is covered with grass and some low-lying plants. The sky is visible through the canopy of the trees.

These trees your children are enjoying now may not be here for their children's enjoyment if harvest of forestable wood continues to upset nature's balance.

At Sauder Woodworking we are helping to maintain nature's balance
by capturing, in laminate form,
the aesthetic beauty of fine woods.
